II.2.4) Description of the procurement

These activities will ensure that children and young people have access to specially designed play provision. These activities should offer children and young people a safe and stimulating environment that supports them to make friends, develop new skills, improve outcomes and participate in fun and exciting activities.

These group-based activities could be planned and structured, as well as unstructured programmes and/or one-off events. This could include play-schemes, Saturday clubs, youth and after-school clubs.

The provision should be appropriate to the needs of the service user and must be child/young person centred, enjoyable and stimulating.

Specialist Group based and leisure activities could include, but is not limited to:

- Play services – Group based activities
- Youth services – Group based activities
- Overnight activity breaks – Group based experiences
- Sports activities – Individual/group based activities
- A social space for young people to ‘Chill out’

On the whole, most services will be accessed in advance and in good time. Due to the nature of the client group, on occasion services will be required in an emergency. Therefore, we will require providers to be responsive to the demands and needs of service users when required

II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The children and young people accessing residential short breaks will have often been referred to the service following a family crisis or problem such as a family illness, the child's behaviour, or parents/carers needing a break.

The main aim of residential short breaks is to offer single or multiple overnights. Respite care is usually arranged on a planned basis, but it may be arranged quickly in an emergency situation.

Residential services will be expected to provide a homely environment where safety, security, and wellbeing are paramount while encouraging socialisation and life skills.

Appropriate accommodation/ premises that is safe and in accordance with legal requirements for provision of overnight care

The services provided should be person centred and include the needs of each child and young person as outlined in the care plan. Services should be planned in conjunction with disabled children, young people and their families, but must include:

- Healthy meals and snacks - including any dietary and/or cultural requirements
- A range of appropriate individual and/or group activities - including providing transport and access to community based activities
- The safe handling and administration of medicines - in accordance with legislation and guidance and individual requirements
- Intimate and personal care – in accordance with the disabled child or young person's individual needs.

Providers will be required to provide transport to the service for children and young people with a disability from both their place of residence and/or school if parents and carers are unable to. The provider will also be required to provide transport to outings and activities and may be required to support transport arrangements in exceptional circumstances.

The provider will be required to work in close partnership with children and young people with a disability and their parents/carers and other professionals to deliver a consistent, comprehensive and flexible service to meet the needs of the individual within the family environment and in the community.

The service should be provided during the following times:

After school visits:

- 2 hours: Monday to Friday term times typically between the hours of 4pm and 6pm for children and young people aged 5-18

Day care:

- Up to 6 hours: Saturday, Sundays and school holidays typically between the hours of 10am and 6pm for children and young people aged 0-18

Overnight stay:

- 24 hours: Fridays, Saturdays and school holidays between the hours of 4pm and 4pm for children and young people aged 0-18

- The service will be provided throughout the year (Every day of the week, 52 weeks per annum).

- In an emergency (e.g. not pre-booked or at short notice).
