- Mental Capacity Act 2005 and the Deprivation of Liberty

Safeguards

- Children and Families Act 2014
- Short Breaks Regulations
- Public Services (Social value) Act 2012
- Staffordshire Connects

The objective of this service is to provide a range of Short Break activities across Staffordshire which Children and Young People with SEND can enjoy as independently as possible

Those interested will be required to provide and evidence that they can deliver the following within Staffordshire, activities which are:

- Meaningful and appropriate for a variety of ages
- Interesting
- Supports Children and Young People in preparation for adulthood
- Promote independence and well being
- Indoor and /or outdoor
- Term time and holiday time
- Offer Value for money
- Offer effective short breaks for the family

Providers will be required to

- Encourage and enable Children and Young People with SEND to access community-based services and support
- Work with local organisations to promote inclusion for Children and Young People with SEND
- Be flexible if required to deliver activities when gaps in provision is recognised
- Engage in meaningful partnership working and effective communication with the family and professionals
- Develop networking opportunities for young people and families
- Positive changes to the quality of people's lives
- Have a genuine desire to influence change for others

- Be innovative and consider solutions to challenges

Staffordshire County Council is particularly interested to hear from providers who can offer activities

1) in rural or less populated areas across Staffordshire,

2) and who can offer support for those with more complex needs

Staffordshire County Council would like to hear from Providers who are interested and capable of delivering an excellent, high quality and outcome focussed service for children and young people with disabilities.
