II.1.4) Short description

The selected supplier will be expected to provide mental health practitioner services in-scope schools within the contractual arrangements set out in this document. The Contract will be based on Star's Terms and Conditions. This will include the relevant minimum service level requirements (SLA/KPIs) for the successful tenderer. Star Academies is looking to run an FTS (EU) compliant tender split into four regional lots with the intention of creating a contract with a single supplier per lot. This will be a restricted process and a process timetable can be found further below in this document. The supplier selected must be able to provide the complete provision of mental health services across Star schools. Star schools may include primaries and secondaries of faith and non-faith types. Schools will be strongly encouraged to take up the provision but some schools may have sufficient in-house capability to negate this need. It is anticipated that schools will phase in over the life of
