Update: London Borough of Southwark will be holding open events for providers of Children and Young People Residential Homes on the 9th and 10th June to attend focus group meetings with commissioners. The events will start at 14:00 to 16:30 on both days. The key themes for discussion:

- Staffing models
- What are the elements of a successful service
- Community wraparound services
- Contracting arrangements

Providers who would like to attend the event are invited to express an interest, the event will be held on Microsoft Teams and the link will be provided for the events nearer the time.
