Scope

Description

Dyfed Area Planning Board (APB) is preparing to tender for Dyfed Tier 2 Substance Misuse Service in the Hywel Dda University Health Board region across West Wales. This is a joint procurement covering:

- Office of Police and Crime Commissioner
- Hywel Dda University Health Board
- Pembrokeshire County Council (APB Bankers)
- Ceredigion County Council
- Carmarthenshire County Council
- Dyfed Powys Police
- His Majesty's Prison and Probation Service.

The project is being led by the Area Planning Board support team, with HDUHB leading on the procurement process.

As part of the planning for the recommissioning process, we are inviting potential providers who may be interested in delivering the future service on behalf of Dyfed APB to take part in a short, anonymous survey which will assist commissioners to ensure the contract value is sustainable, viable and attractive.

The survey should only take 5-10 minutes to complete and responses will be anonymous. We will close the survey on Friday 20th February

For further information about the proposed expectations on the new service, the current demand on Tier 2 services in our area, as well as the estimated contract value and duration and the link to the survey please get in touch with us.
