The Council has a statutory duty to provide transport assistance to certain individuals, under current policies and legislation. Individuals who require transport provision predominantly include children, young people, adults with special educational needs and/or disabilities, travelling from home to school, college or day centres. Some service users have physical, behavioural, emotional or learning difficulties or disabilities.

The Council invites Tenders from Tenderers who wish to be considered for the appointment to a framework agreement for the provision of transport services for children and adults including home to school/college transport. The Framework Agreement is intended to cover any transport needs which the Council cannot cater for within its own fleet of vehicles.

The Council anticipates that the Framework Agreement will commence on 1st July 2023 and have a duration of 4 years.
