II.1.4) Short description

This specification seeks to procure Video Intervention Guidance training (VIG) to be delivered to suitable practitioners working in specialist perinatal mental health services and maternal mental health services across all seven regions in England.

Video Interaction Guidance is a strengths-based, brief intervention used internationally to promote attuned adult-child interaction, through developing adult sensitivity and attunement (Kennedy, H., Landor, M. & Todd, L. (eds) (2011).

VIG is one of the evidence-based video feedback interventions recommended by the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE) to promote secure attachment in children and young people in care, or at high risk of going into care (NICE NG26, 2015).

NICE recommends video feedback to support families with children with autism (NICE CG170, 2013, updated 2021), and to support the social and emotional well-being of children in their early years (NICE PH40, 2012).
