This procurement opportunity relates to provision of Pharmacy Services and has arisen through consultation and discussion between three organisations, local to North East Lincolnshire, who have come together to form a buying Consortium/Partnership.

Navigo Health and Social Care CIC (lead commissioner) (<https://navigocare.co.uk/>) delivers a whole mental health service within the boundaries of N E Lincolnshire; HMT St Hugh's (<https://hmtsthughs.org/>) is a private hospital and registered charity offering services to insured, NHS and self-funding patients and St Andrew's Hospice (<https://www.standrewshospice.com/>) provides care for both children and adults with life-limiting illnesses, mainly locally, but also from further afield in the case of children.

As a Partnership we wish to procure Pharmacy Services across the three organisations which will include: -

- Procurement and storage of pharmaceutical products
- Dispensing of medication (including controlled medication) both for named patients and as stock.
- Dispensing of TTO and discharge medications.
- Supply of non-stock items
- Delivery of medication in suitably temperature-controlled vehicles to all in-patients' units and wards
- Bulk delivery of medication to main sites or agreed community locations (all within the N E Lincolnshire geographical area)
- Provision of depot medication for those community teams who administer them.
