Description

Officers are now preparing to enter Phase 2 of the Climate Adaptation Scilly Project to ensure that funding is spent and the programme is delivered as originally planned.

As the project was paused, there are several works outstanding. The works planned to be completed, subject to funding and technical suitability, as part of phase 2 are as follows:

- Raising the embankment at Periglis (St Agnes)
- Embankment at Green Bay (Bryher)
- Drainage works at The Green (Bryher)
- Demountable sea defences at Periglis (St Agnes)
- Additional demountable sea defences at Porthcressa (St Mary's)

If the program goes to plan we are expecting material delivery to the Islands between June and September 2026, with construction on site between November 2026 and January 2027.
