Description

The Greater London Authority (GLA) is seeking a fabricator to produce a new bronze artwork called, "The Wake" created by artist Khaleb Brooks, a new memorial to honour enslaved Africans who were trafficked as part of the transatlantic slave trade, and their descendants, due to be unveiled in August 2026. The fabricator will work in consultation with with the artist and the commissioner, the Greater London Authority.

Before fabrication of the statue can commence, planning permission will need to be secured for the installation. The planning application will be drawn up and submitted by an architect with the fabricator supporting this process. The fabricator will therefore be awarded the first stage (Phase 1 - Planning Support) initially and then if (as is expected) the application is successful the second stage - ie (Phase 2 - Fabrication and Phase 3 - Installation) - will then be instructed through the same contract.

Total value (estimated)

- £895,000 excluding VAT
- £1,074,000 including VAT

Above the relevant threshold

Contract dates (estimated)

- 25 June 2025 to 24 December 2026
- Possible extension to 24 December 2027
- 2 years, 6 months

Description of possible extension:

Extensions are deemed unlikely and will only be required if a significant delay to the fabrication and installation of the sculpture is encountered.

Options

The right to additional purchases while the contract is valid.

Initial contract will be for the first stage where the supplier will provide planning support to the architects making the planning application. If the application is successful then the second stage of the requirement (fabrication and installation) will be instructed.
