II.2.4) Description of the procurement

There is one document attached which includes the contract conditions and schedules. Schedule 1 sets out the service to be provided, Schedule 2 consists of commonly ordered producsts. Your attention is particularly drawn to Schedule 3, which lists the documents that need to be submitted as part of your bid. This also details which award criteria they relate to and the weighting. Schedule 3 should therefore be submitted with the final column ticked off to indicate that all the required documents have been included.

The contract itself would only be completed and submitted at the point of contract.

Questions are welcome but please ask them through the portal which means that the questions and answers will be seen by all organisations. I will not respond directly to bidders individually so please do not be offended if I do not do so.

James Peters
