Description

You're invited by Hull College to submit a bid to tender for design and build of a new website.

We are seeking to appoint a supplier to develop, and deliver a modern, user-focused website that reflects the college's values, enhances the user experience, and supports our strategic goals. The successful supplier will demonstrate innovation, technical expertise, and a proven track record in developing websites that are accessible, scalable, and able to be optimised for diverse audiences.

The successful supplier will act as an extension to the Hull College marketing team, working closely with the Senior Digital Marketing Officer and the Director of Marketing and, where necessary, other College colleagues.

We're looking to appoint a first-class supplier who share our values, demonstrating respect for the environment, a positive can-do attitude and continuously striving for excellence.

The successful supplier will work alongside the College's marketing team to develop a website to help deliver our vision to be recognised nationally as a leading provider of education and training, supporting sustainable local and regional and national economic development.
