II.1.4) Short description

An Approved List of providers to underpin the strategic priorities of East Sussex County Council's Adult Social Care and Children's Services Departments, and local Health and Housing partners, to provide a flexible, outcomes-focussed on-site housing support service that:

- (i) prevents a wide range of crisis situations including homelessness;
- (ii) supports Clients to stay safe, including their mental and physical wellbeing, and better manage their use of substances and complex needs;
- (iii) builds resilience, in part by taking an asset-based approach to personal development that enables employment and future independent living;
- (iv) actively supports healthy living and well-being;
- (v) actively promotes self-care and avoids hospital or accommodation-based care or use of the Criminal Justice System; and
- (vi) proactively supports Clients to regain independence, maximising their capacity to live independently, and to move on with specialist support to prevent future crises.
