II.1.4) Short description

Camden's Film Service (which sits within the Culture Service) is responsible for managing the licensing of all film making in the Borough's public realm and Camden managed buildings. The Events Team manage the current contract and all communications relating to the contract. Camden has an excellent reputation as an efficient, film friendly borough.

The contract with the current concessionaire is coming to an end in April 2024 and so the Council is considering options for future provision of the film service, including an option to go out to tender for a new contract to commence in April 2024. The Council is therefore seeking responses to a market engagement questionnaire from interested companies, attached.
