Description

City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council are exploring options for commissioning a block of 19 day services supporting around 330 people delivered from 16 locations across the District. Bradford's model for day services is that they: • Deliver support that is asset based: that values the strengths of people and their families, friends and the wider community and uses these to focus on people's health and well-being • Support people to maximise their independence and support positive risk taking to ensure people live their lives as they wish • Are passionate about inclusion and enabling people to be full and active members of their community • Have connections to communities and promote the establishment and maintenance of friendship groups, local links and be able to support people to access services which are reasonably close to their home and accessible to people outside of and independent of daytime activities • Offer diverse services that can be tailored to meet the unique social, cultural and environmental needs and aspirations of people and their carers • Are responsive to changes in demand and support innovation, creativity and imagination to meet people's needs in a person centred way. • Ensure value for money and seek to find ways of supporting people that maximise the monies available • Work in partnership with a wide range of people and organisations, across all sectors, to build capacity to support people We would like to hear provider's views on this opportunity, understand how it might work for you, and what support you would expect from the Council. We will be holding an engagement session on Monday 2nd March at 2pm on Microsoft Teams. Please express an interest via the YORtender portal for registration details. Questions can be asked in advance of the meeting through the messaging function on Yortender
