Orwell MAT [<https://www.omat.org.uk/>] is an established multi-academy trust serving the community of Ipswich and the surrounding areas. Our children and families come from a diverse range of cultures, socio-economic backgrounds and countries, and we work together to improve outcomes and educational experiences for children in Ipswich and the surrounding areas. We currently have 6 schools within the Orwell Multi Academy Trust, and will be opening a new school in Stowmarket in September 2022.

Specialists in primary provision, our aim is to improve outcomes and educational experiences for children and share a collective ambition to bring about success and learning together. Shared learning and experience from across our Trust creates a positive and diverse community where children are able to learn from diverse cultures and backgrounds.

OMAT is looking to implement a single provider of ICT support and procurement services to encompass the Trust and future schools who may join the trust.
