Description

Lived Experience Recovery Organisations (LEROs) are led by people with lived experience of substance use related harms, for the benefit of the recovery community and the wider community. Working with people with lived and living experience is a key priority in the North Yorkshire Substance Use Strategy 2024-2028; this includes the expansion of North Yorkshire Connected Spaces LERO, and ensuring those with lived and living experience have access to strategic and operational spaces to contribute to decision-making.
