VII.2) Other additional information

The contracting authority invites providers of advocacy and independent visitor services, for the following cohorts to attend an online market warming event on the 1st June 2023.

- Adults
- Children and Young People (CYP)
- Independent Visitor (IV)

Following the feedback given by providers who participated in the market engagement exercise earlier in the year the market warming event will inform interested bidders of the new services that will be tendered in early June 2023.

The event will also be an opportunity for prospective bidders to hear in more detail from commissioners about the respective services and to share information in regards to:

- Service model
- Lotting structure
- Tender process and timeline

The event will take place via Microsoft Teams from 10am to 12pm. Please confirm your attendance by completing the table which can be downloaded from the the Pro Contract portal and submitting it via the portal - <https://procontract.due-north.com>
