Engagement process description

Description: Peel Ports Marine Procurement intends to conduct a preliminary market engagement to gather information and insights from potential suppliers regarding the provision of Aid to Navigation (AtoN) services across a number of its ports. This engagement will inform the development of the specifications and procurement strategy for a future tender. Location: Port of Liverpool, Sheerness Port, Clyde Port, and Heysham Port Scope of Engagement Purpose: This PMEN serves as a preliminary market engagement to:

- Inform potential suppliers of the upcoming procurement
- Gather market intelligence on current service delivery capabilities
- Explore innovative solutions and technologies related to AtoN services
- Understand potential commercial models and pricing structures
- Identify potential risks and opportunities associated with the extension

Engagement Activities:

- Requests for information (RFIs) or questionnaires
- One-to-one meetings with interested suppliers who demonstrate a strong likelihood of being able to meet our specification
