II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Award of Contract. The objectives of the service are:

- To enable Supported Persons to return to a meaningful life within the least restrictive environment possible by developing and strengthening coping strategies and support networks, and achieving personal outcomes.
- To prevent unnecessary hospital admission or involvement with statutory services.

This will be achieved using:

- Graded Support: Providing an environment which “fits” the Supported Persons’ needs including consideration to physical environment, appropriate staffing levels, and ensuring flexibility in line with Supported Persons’ needs.
- Person Centred Choice: Increasing Supported Persons’ opportunities to make choices and to continue to develop sustainable coping strategies by strengthening support networks and developing relationships.
- Meaningful Days: To facilitate Supported Persons to establish community living skills by identifying meaningful routines, interests, activities and roles.

The ELHSCP ambition across all our mental health services, regardless of the level of need, is that people are able to access the right help, at the right time, first time.
