II.1.4) Short description

Home tuition is provided to a variety of children and young people throughout their educational careers who are unable to physically attend school, for various reasons. Worcestershire Children First (WCF) are commissioning this service moving forward to produce the best outcomes for the children and young people using the service and are seeking a single, preferred supplier. Historically, WCF has purchased home tuition for 100+ children unable to attend school each academic year. Whilst every case is reviewed individually, typically students receive 10-15 hours of tuition per week. The expectation is that tuition will be needed, on average, for 100 young people at 12 hours per week for 39 weeks per year, across Worcestershire.

II.1.5) Estimated total value
