VII.2) Other additional information

The decision has been taken NOT to undertake the assessment of new applications during July/August 2024 as the Council will be in the process of establishing its new pseudo framework for the provision of a generic domiciliary care service to Wakefield Council and/or West Yorkshire Integrated Care Board.

The Council will soon be going out to tender for this provision therefore it is encouraged that any provider wishing to be appointed to deliver generic domiciliary care services, complete the application form in relation to the new pseudo framework, once the opportunity is published on YORtender.
