Framework operation description

Selection and award process using the taxi rank system

Call-off contracts for catering services will be awarded using the taxi rank system, operating as follows:

1.Framework ranking

At framework award, suppliers will be ranked based on their overall tender scores, taking into account quality and price in accordance with the published award criteria.

2.Offering of requirements

When a catering requirement arises (for example, a meeting, training event, or function), the opportunity will first be offered to the highest-ranked supplier on the taxi rank, provided they:

- can meet the menu, dietary, and service requirements,

- have capacity and availability on the required date and time,
- can deliver the service within the required location and timescales, and
- accept the call-off at the framework terms and prices.

3.Movement down the rank

If the first-ranked supplier is unable to meet the requirement, the opportunity will be offered to the next supplier in the taxi rank, continuing sequentially until a suitable supplier is identified.

4.Rotation of suppliers

Once a supplier accepts and delivers a call-off contract, they will move to the bottom of the taxi rank, with all other suppliers moving up one position. This ensures a fair and equitable distribution of catering opportunities across the framework.

Benefits of the taxi rank approach for catering services

- Rapid access to catering services for short-notice and routine events
- Clear, pre-agreed pricing with no call-off negotiation
- Fair rotation of work across approved catering suppliers
- Reduced administrative burden for both the contracting authority and suppliers
