Section VI. Complementary information

VI.3) Additional information

In order to support a potential tender process for the above Managed Service, the Ministry of Justice is planning to hold a virtual Early Market Engagement Event.

The Event is planned to be held in May/June 2024 (however, this may be subject to change) with the aim of bringing together and engaging with potential suppliers of the provision.

Potential providers interested in attending the virtual Early Market Engagement Event should register on the Ministry of Justice eSourcing Portal, <https://ministryofjusticecommercial.bravosolution.co.uk> where you will be able to continually access further information about this and any future event(s) to be hosted and confirm attendance.

The virtual early market engagement event does not formally signify the beginning of a procurement and does not constitute a commitment by the MoJ to undertake any procurement exercise.
