The Nuneaton Academy Sports Centre is a vital facility for the local and wider community in Nuneaton. The impact of Covid-19 saw the centre close in March 2020 and it has not re-opened since. The Academy is seeking a partner who will re-open the facility and not only manage the return of the many sports groups, teams and activities but also seek to expand the services and maximise the facilities to improve the mental and physical wellbeing of our community. We want a pro-active partner that will prepare ideas and plans to deliver a more varied and accessible scope of activities, to seek out grants and funding opportunities to help us provide these much needed services.
