Community benefits are included in this requirement. For more information see:

<https://www.gov.scot/policies/public-sector-procurement/community-benefits-in-procurement/>

A summary of the expected community benefits has been provided as follows:

The Scottish Model of Procurement aims to secure the maximum economic benefit from the GBP 10 billion spent by the public sector on goods and services each year, through an approach that balances the business friendly and the socially responsible.

The Public Procurement Reform Programme delivers value that goes beyond savings and benefits – improving supplier access to public contracts, particularly for SMEs; maximising efficiency and collaboration; and placing the local, social and economic aspects of sustainability at the heart of the purchasing process.

The Procurement Reform (Scotland) Act 2014 established a national legislative framework for sustainable public procurement that supports Scotland's economic growth through improved procurement practice – and requires public bodies to consider how their procurement activity can improve the economic, social and environmental wellbeing of the authority's area.

It also specifically requires public bodies to consider imposing community benefit requirements as part of a major contract; these might relate to, for example, employment opportunities or to sub-contracting opportunities.

Examples of Community Benefits

- Community activity – investment in buildings, resources, facilities, (new or repair), human resources
- Supporting education, learning, schools – school visits, presentations, providing resources, factory / site visits, education, training and learning
- Employment – supporting via apprentices, employing unemployed, training, skills development, supporting return to work
- Economic – support SMEs, 3rd sector / supported business indirectly, directly or via subcontracting

The Authority's Community Benefit Process

Third sector community organisations post community needs on the Community Benefit Gateway (CBG) which can be accessed by following the guidance through this link below

Access our Community Benefit Gateway National Services Scotland

Community Benefit Gateway (CBG) is a free and easy to use online service that connects NHS Scotland suppliers with third sector community organisations within Scotland.

The Community Benefit Gateway supports community initiatives such as:

- Work placement opportunities
- Volunteering projects
- The provision of professional advice
- Assistance with building community facilities
- Environmental proposals

- Improving and promoting biodiversity
- Lifelong learning projects (this list is not exhaustive)

NHS Scotland suppliers should review the Community Benefit Gateway on a regular basis with a view to potentially fulfilling community needs.

Regular reviews on activity will be discussed with the Procurement Officer(s) responsible for Contract Management activity, while also being reviewed through NHSGGCs Key Supplier Management process
