Description

ISG requires the supply of certified door and window hardware listed within our approved Field of Application and supporting BSI and BM Trada PAS 24 security certifications. All components must match those used in accredited testing for KM 32821 (BS EN 12608:2003), PAS 24:2016, and BS 8529:2010 to ensure ongoing compliance. Due to current procurement route considerations, temporary supplier exceptions may be required to maintain operational continuity. Hardware must include certified locks, hinges, TS008 letterplates, and fire-rated components as specified within our certification documents.
