II.1.4) Short description

Medway Council wish to procure a new Medway VCS Better Together Consortium service. The contract forms a collaborative working partnership to support and improve life outcomes for Medway residents and a resilient Voluntary Community Sector within Medway.

The services are divided into 4 Lots:

- Lot 1 Infrastructure to support the VCS Organisations in Medway, to support a resilient and thriving VCS.
- Lot 2 Local Healthwatch Medway, to support the provision of an independent patient voice.
- Lot 3 Adult and Young Carers Support Services, that supports:
 - o Information, Guidance and Advice for Carers.
 - o A Young Carers support service, that ensures young carers are not undertaking inappropriate caring roles.
 - o Carers Support Payments, which enable both adults and young carers to take respite or to reach their life goals and to live independent healthy lives and avoid a crisis.
- Lot 4 Children's and Adults Visually Impaired (VI) Support and Information Service, which will maintain the VI Registers and supports independent living, rehabilitation, and prevention of age-related eye conditions.

The Medway VCS Better Together Consortium key objectives are:

- One set of mutually agreed Key Performance Indicators.
- A single point of contact to address relevant issues, risks and opportunities.
- Strategic outcomes achieved by effective collaborative working relationships.
- Maximum use of community resource.
- The creation of a mutually agreed collaborative Action Plan.
