VI.3) Additional information

A further competition may be commissioned during the framework term for additional Grounds Maintenance Products. Any further mini-competition for competed goods will be run with all Contractors appointed to the framework irrespective of the Lot they are awarded. (Unless otherwise excluded through poor performance). Once awarded the Competed Goods shall form part of the Standard Goods which the successful Framework Provider is eligible to provide under the terms of this Framework Agreement for the duration of the Framework Agreement. Contract Monitoring: The Successful Contractor's performance on this Framework will be managed as per the specification and regularly monitored (see poor performance procedures as detailed within the Department of Finance, <https://www.finance-ni.gov.uk/publications/sourcing-and-construction-toolkits-0> Contractors not delivering on contract requirements is a serious matter. It means the public purse is not getting what it is paying for. If a contractor fails to reach satisfactory levels of contract performance they will be given a specified time to improve. If, after the specified time, they still fail to reach satisfactory levels of contract performance, the matter will be escalated to senior management in EA for further action. If this occurs and their performance still does not improve to satisfactory levels within the specified period, it may be regarded as an act of grave professional misconduct and they may be issued with a Notice of Unsatisfactory Performance and this Contract may be terminated. Any contractor in receipt of a Notice of Unsatisfactory Performance will be required to declare this in future tender submissions for a period of three years from the date of issue of the Notice. It may also result in the contractor being excluded from all procurement competitions being undertaken by the EA. Education Authority Northern Ireland (EA) are committed to the promotion of social inclusion and equal opportunities, as well as the responsible use and protection of natural resources and reducing our carbon footprint as key objectives in the Sustainable Development Strategy for Northern Ireland. The Contracting Authority has included Social Considerations Clauses within the Framework. These can be found within Schedule 8. - Social Considerations within the document 1. FMM-22-013 Framework Agreement for Supplies. The Authority cannot give any commitment as to the usage, volume, or value of products required under this Contract. Any levels, or aggregate values of goods, referred to are indicative only and shall not be binding on the Client.
