Description

Erewash Borough Council (The Council) is seeking a suitably experienced and skilled artist to deliver a Street Art project in locations across the Borough of Erewash.

The aim of the project is to create artwork that enhances the area, feels positive, and fits well with its surroundings to enhance the street and place pride in Erewash.

Sites have been identified across Ilkeston, Long Eaton and rural areas. Of these, three sites have completed feasibility assessments and are approved for artwork.

The remaining sites are still undergoing feasibility and planning checks and are the yet to be approved. Contractors are required to submit pricing for all sites.

The Council does not guarantee that every site will proceed and reserves the right to remove any site from the Contract without cost or a change to pricing for other sites.

Full details can be found within the Tender documentation.
