II.1.4) Short description

The contract is for the provision of care and support with Islington Council being the landlord, at a new purpose built, supported living service at Windsor Street. The eleven people residing at the scheme will have a range of support needs including those who have additional physical disabilities, are wheelchair users and may need a high level of individual support and care with managing their daily lives.

The scheme will be comprised of four fully wheelchair accessible units at ground floor level sharing a combined living, kitchen, dining room with additional assisted bathroom and seven self-contained flats (two fully wheelchair-accessible; five wheelchair-adaptable) on the upper levels

The contract for care and support will ensure that there is 24-hour support at the services and the intention is to procure the service with a 'core and flexi' model to support individuals' choice, freedom, and control.
