Scope

Reference

LJMU 2523

Description

LJMU operates in the UK as a higher-education provider and has international activities (e.g. overseas collaborations, foreign students, employee research activities, partnerships, joint ventures). Because of the combination of charitable status, trading activities, cross-border operations, and regulatory complexity (including VAT, corporation tax, employment tax, international tax, transfer pricing), the University requires specialist tax advisory services.

The advisory services provider will support the University to ensure compliance with UK tax law (direct and indirect), optimise tax position (within legal bounds), support international tax exposure, and advise on cross-border structuring, trading activities, research & development reliefs, and other sector-specific issues.

Total value (estimated)

- £500,000 including VAT
