Scope

Description

Hammersmith and Fulham are on the lookout for a professional market/events company to help us re-establish weekly farmers markets in three of our prestigious parks: Ravenscourt Park, Bishop's Park, and Shepherds Bush Green.

At this session, the councils Events Team will provide prospective bidders with insights into the project's objectives, priorities, and expectations, as well as guidance on how to submit a tailored tender proposal to the council.

The successful bidder will be awarded a 3-Year Contract to deliver up to 150 markets each year, bringing fresh locally sourced food to our community while enhancing the food and leisure offerings in our bustling borough.

Important Information- You must register on capitalEsourcing by setting up a username and password in advance of the session.

If you're unable to attend but still wish to gain insights or have specific queries, we invite you to schedule a online 1-1 advice session. Our team is here to support you and discuss your interests in more detail.

The session will be held in person in Hammermsith and Fulham, venue to be confirmed.

For any questions or to express your interest in a 1-1 advice session, please reach out to us at eventsteam@lbhf.gov.uk.
