II.1.4) Short description

We've identified the need to re-develop the current PARTNERS Programme Supported Entry Route website (www.ncl.ac.uk/partners). The development of this site has been very organic over many years and this has led to a lack of consistency on the site. The site is also currently built in the old T4 template and will need to be moved to T4 Version 8 to fit in with the main University webpages.

We are seeking to appoint a supplier to work on the redevelopment of the website. The supplier needs to have the ability to understand the variety of audiences, and translate these services into a fluid, content-focussed user-journey.

We are expecting the successful supplier to undertake the following:

1. New website build
2. Audience segmentation
3. Content strategy
4. Training

Precise information on deadline(s) for review procedures

The University will incorporate a standstill period at the point information on the award of the contract is communicated to tenderers. That notification will provide full information on the award decision. The standstill period, which will be for a minimum of 10 calendar days, provides time for unsuccessful tenderers to challenge the award decision before the contract is entered into.

The Public Contracts Regulations 2015 (SI 2015 No 102) provide for aggrieved parties who have been harmed or are at risk of harm by a breach of the rules to take action in the High Court (England, Wales and Northern Ireland) within 30 days of knowledge or constructive knowledge of breach.

VI.4.4) Service from which information about the review procedure may be obtained
