Options: Yes

Description of options

The agreement can be extended after the initial term of 3 years for 2 periods of 24 months each (i.e. 48 months in total)

II.2.14) Additional information

It is intended to award this contract to the provider stated in this notice as their submission scored the highest for both quality and cost. In terms of key criteria, their bid was the lowest for price and hence value. In terms of quality and innovation their response demonstrated an evidenced based model with good course content and a plan for growth. Their co-production processes and feedback mechanisms were good. The provider demonstrated an excellent approach and offer to social value including volunteering and a robust approach to net zero commitments. In terms of access, reducing health inequalities, sustainability, integration and collaboration, the winning provider demonstrated a good plan for working in collaboration with partners in Norfolk and also a wide variety of access and marketing channels. The winning provider demonstrated a focus on health inequalities and an approach to improve these.
