Lot 1 - North Wales region

Welsh Government requires the development and delivery of regional tourism communication plans, to support Welsh Government's efforts to promote Wales globally to influential B2B (Business-to-Business) and B2C (B2C) markets. Successful communications rely, in part, on relationships built with trusted partners and stakeholders within destinations and regions. Visit Wales recognises that this work can be undertaken as supplementary to the mainstream communications, online and offline, that the proposed contractors already have in place e.g. industry news, training facilitation, events, webinars, etc. With the above at its heart, the successful contractors will be required to research, prepare, present and deliver an effective, deliverable regional communications plan for 2022-2025 focussed on addressing the needs of their respective area and its make-up of businesses. Detail is required within the plan for year 1 (financial year 2022/23) and a broader delivery approach outlined for years 2 and 3. The contract will be for 3 years with an annual review break included to assess performance and outputs.
