Description

Lincoln College Group (LCG) is an FE and HE college spread over two sites in Lincoln and Newark. We are inviting bids for the provision of security security services. The contractor will provide support to the Facilities Department during the hours of 6am and 9:30pm, Monday to Friday. This can include room unlocks and escorting contractors in addition to the manned guard role of patrolling, along with any other reasonable requests. The contractor will also be required to assist with car parking duties, ticketing unauthorised vehicle's and supporting college events.

As part of the wider security provision, the successful contractor will be required to deliver professional security and crowd management services for events hosted at The Drill Hall, Lincoln.

Guards must use body cameras (with GDPR compliance) and be first aid/fire marshal trained. Guards must be fully vetted for an educational environment (including enhanced DBS checks and require Child Barred List Checks from all contractors).

Please note that this contract covers The Drill Hall and The Old Bakery which are separate legal entities,
