II.1.4) Short description

The new Supported Living Framework commenced on August 1st 2021. The new Supported Living Framework is inclusive of the provision of personal Support for young people (16+) and adults. This approach will promote effective transition from children's to adult's services and positive outcomes for people as they move into adulthood. It also promotes a more integrated approach to market engagement and development across the Council's services and best use of resources. The Framework is now continually open to new Service Providers to join the Framework at any time throughout the Agreement Term.
