The London Borough of Wandsworth is carrying out a market engagement exercise on behalf of the Pan-London FDAC Partnership to inform future commissioning and procurement plans in respect of a Family Drug and Alcohol Court (FDAC) service for a consortium of London local authorities. The Pan-London FDAC Partnership is a consortium of local authorities working with judges and staff across three London family courts to deliver a FDAC service for children and families, who are being put at risk due to parental substance misuse. The Partnership is keen to hear from experienced and new providers interested and able to deliver a FDAC service in London. We are seeking written responses to the questions set out in the FDAC Market Testing Questionnaire which is available on the Delta e-sourcing portal. Please note this Notice is not a call for competition. Participation in this exercise will not include/preclude any organisation from participating in any future procurement event.
