II.1.4) Short description

The City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council sought to appoint a framework of suppliers to provide the supply and distribution of Work Wear (casual and formal) PPE and Safety wear.

The framework is to be for an initial period of 2 years from July 2021 with the option to extend for a further two one year periods subject to the service still being required and the Councils discretion. The values given are indicative only and are for the initial framework period only as the Council can not guarantee the future level of need under this arrangement.

Although the contracting body for the purpose of this framework arrangement is the City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council, access will be made available to this arrangement to other contracting bodies as detailed in the tender documents. Where any other party other than the Council accesses the framework the contractual relationship would be between the individual party accessing the contract and the contractor.
