II.2.4) Description of the procurement

For this contract, we are looking to appoint two suppliers. Suppliers will be required to host, design and run our consultations and collect, undertake analysis of and report on responses that present results clearly to our key stakeholders. Different consultations will require different levels of involvement from suppliers - for example in some cases the NMC will support on aspects such as setting up or hosting online surveys, whereas in others it will be expected that the supplier will take full responsibility for this - such points would be discussed and agreed ahead of the start of each consultation.
