Tees Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust (TEWV) are the Mental Health & Learning Disability NHS Trust for County Durham and Darlington, Teesside, North Yorkshire, York and Selby. Along with partners, they deliver support to people in their own homes, and from community and hospital-based premises.

From education and prevention, to crisis and specialist care their talented and compassionate teams work in partnership with patients, communities and partners to help the people of their region feel safe, understood, believed in and cared for.

They are committed to new thinking that improves the wellbeing of the region and connect with communities and partners to get mental health care right, in areas that really need it.

TEWV have more than 8,000 employees and work across more than 100 sites. In addition to their corporate teams, the remaining services are divided into two Care Group Boards; Durham, Tees Valley and Forensic Service Care Group Board and North Yorkshire and York Care Group Board.

Some of the key sites are:

- West Park Hospital, Darlington
- Lanchester Road Hospital, Durham
- Roseberry Park, Middlesbrough
- Flatts Lane Centre, Normanby
- North Moor House, Northallerton,
- Huntingington House, York
- Foss Park, York
- Cross Lane Scarborough
- Windsor House, Harrogate

TEWV also provide services into a number of HM Prisons in the North East, Cumbria, Hull and Humber.

The Trust is keen to engage with the market to better understand supplier capability ahead of a potential further competition for Physiotherapy Services.
