II.1.4) Short description

Coventry Law School, a constituent School within Coventry University, offers a broad range of undergraduate and postgraduate law degrees, including both academic and professional vocational programmes. The School places considerable emphasis on employability, including opportunities for students to network with the legal professions, and engaging in clinical legal education to broaden their experience in practical legal skills and case management. The School has a long history of offering a broad and engaging suite of clinical legal education opportunities, and we are now seeking invitations from clinical legal education providers to partner with us to ensure Coventry Law School continues to provide valuable and sector-leading law clinic provision.

Please refer to section 6.2 of the ITT document for the core requirements of the service.

All correspondence must be made through the In-tend portal: <https://in-tendhost.co.uk/coventryuniversity.aspx/Home>
