Evidence based support may include emotional wellbeing and mental health advice, Youth Work and Counselling. Essential to deliver 'drop-in' based support via several locally based hubs.

This service will meet the following objectives:

- CYP will have access to a youth therapeutic service providing early intervention for emerging mild to moderate social, emotional and mental health needs.
- The Youth therapeutic pathway will engage CYP in their local communities wherever possible with both online and face to face options made available to them.
- The Youth therapeutic pathway will provide specific and targeted support for CYP who are engaging in self-injury and self-harm behaviours.
- This support will lead to a reduction in emotional wellbeing and mental health problems extending into adulthood, leading to a reduction in the associated financial and social costs of mental health care across the lifespan.

The provider of this project will commit to working collaboratively with children and young people's mental health (CYPMH) and wider health, education and care system partners and adopt a Thrive approach for CYP accessing mental health (MH) services
