II.1.4) Short description

The council is responsible for the management of five closed landfill sites throughout Glasgow and the surrounding areas. Despite these landfill sites no longer accepting biodegradable waste for a considerable period of time, the council has a statutory obligation to ensure environmental impacts associated with these landfill sites are managed correctly to protect the environment.

The scope of this future tender opportunity requires the appointment of a landfill consultant to support the council to transition to a definitive closure state. Definitive closure is regarded as when a landfill has been assessed that it poses a reduced environmental risk to the local surroundings.
