Southwark Council is carrying out soft market engagement in relation to its recommissioning of support, housing and resettlement services for children and young people looked after, care leavers and young people who are homeless in Southwark who are aged 16 to 25 years. We are seeking your input and views as we want to work with partners to help shape these services. We are working to ensure that when we do proceed with our procurement that we have as much accurate information as possible to ensure these are successful. We are keen to understand your interest in bidding for these services and insight on your experience of delivering similar services.

In order to engage with and assist the Council at this market insight stage interested provider organisations of any size are asked to download and complete the questionnaire attached to this notice and to submit the response via the messaging service on the portal not later than Tuesday 9th July 2024.
