governance, leading to fewer instances of failures of leadership and resulting in improved educational and financial outcomes.

The Contractor will design and deliver a programme to implement the recommendations for NLG Reform. The requirements fall under six functions, which form the basis for the programme milestones:

Function 1: National recruitment. Develop and deliver a communication and engagement strategy to attract high calibre candidates with diverse backgrounds.

Function 2: Assessment. Design and implement a two-stage the application process that consists of:

o Stage 1:

Written application to assess eligibility and standards

Two references

o Stage 2:

Interview

Function 3: Moderation. To moderate the two-stage application process to ensure a fair, consistent approach.

Function 4: Induction and Training. Design and deliver a pre-deployment induction which includes an overview of the programme and how it works (brokering, deployments, reporting, QA, payment and de-designation). Training at this stage is a light touch and may include refresher training.

Function 5: Matching and deployment. Match schools/trusts needing governance support with the most appropriate NLG, and in doing so, deliver consistently high-quality governance support.

Function 6: Quality assurance. Develop and implement appropriate quality assurance processes and provide a quarterly report to the Department.
