II.1.4) Short description

The London Borough of Croydon is has awarded providers with relevant experience a place on the Dynamic Purchasing System (DPS) to supply Independent Living Services.

The Dynamic Purchasing System (DPS) model provides flexibility both for the Council and providers as new suppliers can, having met the exclusion and selection criteria, join the DPS throughout its duration.

The Council will allow access to the DPS to its health partners in Croydon including the

Croydon One Alliance

Croydon Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG)

Croydon Health Services (CHS)

Croydon National Health Services (NHS Trust)

South London and Maudsley Hospital (SLaM).

The Council is procuring this DPS under the light touch regime and is adapting it to enable it to procure the services it requires. Please see the Additional Information of the Notice.

II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Lot 3 - Semi-Independent accommodation for Young people aged 16-25 in the London Borough of Croydon.

The service will enable Young People who have either been 'In Care', or are deemed vulnerable because of their previous life experiences, to succeed in their transition to adulthood.

The Specification seeks to define the core requirements that are common to a range of services, each providing different levels of person-centred support, ranging from early intervention/short term accommodation, to 24 hour staffed accommodation, to varying levels of outreach support that enables the Young Person to sustain their own tenancy.

The London Borough of Croydon is looking to work with Service Providers, who can demonstrate both the experience and expertise in providing person centred support to young individuals or groups of individuals, in one or more than one of the following service areas :

1. Emergency /Short term supported accommodation: to enable the young person to return to live within their family home or to provide an interim solution.

2. Semi-independent 24 hour staffed accommodation for 16-18 year olds: in small group living arrangements for a maximum of 6 young people.

3. Semi-independent accommodation for Care leavers 18-25 : with allocated support (not 24 hour) in group living environments.

4. Group or Independent Accommodation for young people aged 18-25 whose needs may require additional specialist support : primarily but not exclusively associated with mental ill-health, substance misuse, criminal behaviour, learning disability and/or autistic spectrum.

5. Single gender group living schemes: for young people aged 16+ at risk of criminal exploitation.

6. Training flats for Care leavers aged 18+: to trial living independently prior to a permanent move.

7. Outreach support: to facilitate and sustain the move for young people aged 18-25 to independent accommodation.

8. Other types of semi-independent accommodation services: that may be required and that will be specified at call off stage.
