Engagement process description

As part of the preparatory work for the forthcoming procurement of a retail services concession at Guy's Hospital, the Trust undertook a structured market engagement process in April 2025 in accordance with the Procurement Act 2023. The purpose of this engagement was to assess market appetite, gather supplier feedback, test key assumptions within the draft service model, and ensure that the procurement was accessible, proportionate, and capable of attracting high-quality proposals from a diverse range of providers. The Trust (supported by its procurement advisors, Neller Davies) held preliminary engagement sessions with at least five organisations representing a cross-section of the UK food and non-food retail sectors. These included: 1. A high street coffee chain operator 2. A regional convenience retailer 3. A hospital-based SME café provider 4. A national concession catering operator 5. A social enterprise with experience in NHS retailing Each session included a walk-through of the draft RFP and service expectations, and gave providers an opportunity to comment on the following: • Commercial viability of a turnover rent plus MGR model. • Appetite for capital investment with a 10-year concession (and break at year 5). • Interest in occupying the Guy's Hospital reception space under a single-operator model. • Ability to deliver 24/7 service through blended staffed and automated formats. • Fit with social value and sustainability ambitions, including local sourcing. • Interest in participating in the formal procurement. Additionally, an open Market Engagement Briefing was held online to allow other interested suppliers to register their interest and access early draft documentation. Providers were encouraged to express preferences for individual outlet types and to raise any concerns regarding operational constraints, risk-sharing, or TUPE.
