II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Park View Academy of Sport is seeking to appoint a provider to deliver the following academies, fully staffed to deliver outstanding outcomes.

We are requesting interested parties to submit a plan on the number of staff required and a budget model for this. We are expecting to see how the academies will be managed, what delivery will be in place for coaching, sports science, vocational teaching, cleaning, logistics and operational delivery of the sports academy.

Key to this is having staff who can manage the sports academies alongside delivering the pastoral aspects required within the academic environment.

The numbers of learners for each sport are detailed below:

Mens football - 130

Womens football - 55

Rugby league - 12

Rugby union - 22

Cricket - 40

Rowing - 5

Netball - 10

Athletics - 15

The contract also requires provision of minibus drivers in order to provide transport for students outside of the area to pick up and drop off to the locations outlined in Annex A of the ITT. The school has 8 minibuses that can be utilised for the bus runs. Drivers would also be required for any fixtures during the year.

Please submit tenders in line with the guidance found on the ITT. Any incomplete or incorrectly completed submissions may be deemed non-compliant, and as a result you may be unable to proceed further in the procurement process.
